

Rowan Kidsilk Haze Stripe Cowl

This wispy welted cowl is the perfect answer to a self-striping Kidsilk Haze. By using simple Wrap-And-Turns, the welts are accomplished with all knit stitches, making for mindless knitting kept entertaining by ever evolving colors!

Materials:

- 1 skein Rowan Kidsilk Haze Stripe (462yd/50g fingering weight silk/mohair blend)
- 16" circular needle size US8 (5.0mm)
- Spare needle or double-point in size US 9 (5.5mm) for binding off

Gauge: 3.5 sts and 6.5 rows = 1" in Stockinette stitch

W&T: wrap and turn as follows,

- 1) Bring yarn forward
- 2) Slip marker to right needle, and slip next stitch purlwise
- 3) Put yarn to back
- 4) Put slipped stitch back on left needle, put marker back on left needle
- 5) Move yarn to the front, turn.

Begin: Cast on 160 stitches. Join in the round, being careful not to twist.

*Knit 10 rounds.

At the end of the 10th round, W&T (you will now be facing the wrong side of the work and ready knit in the other direction).*

Repeat between * 12 more times. Bind off loosely (we suggest using Jeny's Surprisingly Stretchy Bind Off) with a size US 9 needle. Weave in all ends and block lightly.

Wear it loosely around your neck, or double it up for a snug, under-the-collar fit.
